

IMAGO KIDS

AFTER SCHOOL @ BBC

Join us on Wednesdays after school
to play, create, snack,
& learn The Biggest Story—
the story that God has written from creation to proclaim
Jesus Christ, His Son.

DETAILS

Who: Kindergarten–5th grade students

When: Wednesdays, 3–5pm

Where: Becker Baptist Church

Drop Off: Students from Becker Primary & Becker Intermediate will be met by Becker Baptist Church leaders to walk over to the church. (On days that the weather is not conducive to walking, the church van will be used to transport students from the schools to the church.)

Pick Up: Parents will pick up their kids at the church at 5pm.

Format: Kids will start with snack and hangout time and then rotate through program stations (VBS style) of games, crafts, and lesson. We will be using The Biggest Story Storybook Bible curriculum from Crossway Publishing.

NEXT STEPS FOR PARENTS

Register your kids now at the Welcome Center or online at www.beckerbaptist.org/welcomecenter/. At this time we are limiting registration to 50 kids to ensure a sufficient ratio of adult volunteers to kids. There is no cost to register.

PRAY WITH US

Pray that kids from Christian families will encourage their friends from school to join them and learn the great truths that make up the Biggest Story.

Pray that biblical literacy will increase in our community and that more image bearers will come to know the One whose image they bear.

WHY "IMAGO" KIDS?

IMAGO is the Latin word for image. In the Christian tradition, IMAGO is followed by DEI, meaning God. IMAGO DEI: the image of God.

That is what we, as humans, are. We are made in the image of God (Genesis 1:27). We know that God doesn't make mistakes, and that everyone has the important distinction of bearing God's image. Every person displays God's very fingerprint.

Our desire at Becker Baptist Church is to reinforce and proclaim that great truth to every kid that walks through the doors of IMAGO Kids.
